

GOOD GOVERNANCE

Good governance is the ideal concept where values, procedures, culture and ethics are treated at par with compliance under law and form part of Governance framework. Good governance practices include a set of defined processes, procedures and mechanisms to aid inculcate a culture of governance. Good governance is based out of one of the main branches of Philosophy i.e. Principle of Logic reasoning and argumentation.

Enactment: The Company strongly believes in good governance and endeavours adoption of all such processes and procedures, various voluntary and non-mandatory policies, disclosures, intimations to all our stakeholders, ethical practices, human rights issues, that are aligned with good governance.